

Valard Fuel Truck Driver

DESCRIPTION

Valard is currently seeking Fuel Truck Drivers to work in a camp. We are looking for self-motivated individuals with a positive attitude. You would be willing to work as a valued team member while maintaining the timeline of the project schedule.

Successful applicants will be required to work away as needed, and be responsible for the following tasks:

- Oversee the safety aspects of their working environment and make sure that they are upheld and renewed accordingly, as and when needed
- Comply with company safe work practices and procedures
- Participate in ongoing hazard assessments, daily toolbox meetings and inspections including all required safety documentation and paperwork as per company policy
- Site requirements and OH&S obligations; report accidents, incidents and near misses
- Evaluate the dangers of the location, judge the different methods and plans, and understand the application of first-aid, as and when situations demand
- Observe the project undertakings and make sure they agree with the rules and policies of fuel truck exercises and organize project programs and strategies
- Oversee their interactions with co-drivers and decide hard-hitting beginnings for all the drivers if possible
- Make sure that the ambiance is safe and sound and in agreement with the safety plans and programs
- Ensure that fuel tanks are filled with oil and fuel, the tires are filled with air
- Observe their work carefully in order to anticipate problems early and adopt safety measures like using safety mechanisms while working
- Supply fuel to the crews
- Agree to the protection rules and policies in transporting, handling and supplying procedures and methods of fuel
- Comprise dangerous substantial promotional materials and report the supplies to his head on a regular basis
- Keep written accounts of the work done every day
- Analyze geographical maps and avoid routes that are dangerous, full of obstacles and repairs
- Travel and acclimatize to all types of seasons, whether night or day
- Drive carefully on hills and bad weather circumstances and manage the truck safely

- Read the measuring instruments and meters in order to record the readings and quantify the goods loaded and drawn
- Document the required and important readings and quantities of the truck and commodities respectively in the driver's log
- Examine the goods that are carried to ensure they meet all policies, rules and regulations

REQUIREMENTS

- Ability to work alone and as a part of a team
- Ability to provide a drug and alcohol clearance
- Work a 20/10 work shift rotation
-
- Class 5 with Clean, recent, 10 year abstract
- First Aid, CSTS, Ground Disturbance

If interested in the opportunity, please send your resume to Sam Sobush Supercom Employment and Training Coordinator at sam.sobush@supercomindustries.com

Indigenous persons, especially those qualified members from our partner First Nations are encouraged to apply